Poem of the week

The road not taken

By Robert Frost

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
 And sorry I could not travel both,
 And be one traveller, long I stood,
 And looked down one as far as I could,
 To where it bent in the undergrowth;
 Then took the other, as just as fair,
 And having perhaps the better claim,
 Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
 Though as for that the passing there,
 Had worn them really about the same,
 And both that morning equally lay,
 In leaves no step had trodden black.
 Oh, I kept the first for another day!
 Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
 I doubted if I should ever come back.
 I shall be telling this with a sigh,
 Somewhere ages and ages hence:
 Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
 I took the one less travelled by,
 And that has made all the difference.

Tricks to make your HOME a happier place

The difference between a house and home is not how you choose different furniture or walls and doors, but rather how you love to spend time surrounded by them. And the most special thing which makes home nurturing is the happiness that you feel when you return home. If you don't find this happiness when you enter, follow me to make your home a happier place:

Make your house like you

Reflect your personality in the design and furniture. Choose some decorations you find interesting to watch every day.

Make it a refuge

Set your own house similar to that place where you want to escape – a retreat and a zone without stress. You will like it; you will love it.

Catch the memories

Try to regain the memories that you have shared there - the laughter and companions; relive the parties, the winter chills, steaming mugs of hot chocolate and the screaming of children in the corners.

Tricks

If you are a very critical person, use these methodical tricks for a happier ambiance in your living space:

The contrast is very important to stun you every day; the combination between colours and different supplies keeps a room feeling attractive and interesting.

Make a colourful statement in the entrance; a strong impressing announcement in the entrance will make you wonder what else this house has hidden for you.

Choose furniture with curves and round shapes, such as the living room's drum shade and coffee table make a house more lovable and livable.

Keep the power of white painting in the house; white reflects light and happiness of course.

Mix it up; borrow many cultures and tastes from your own eye.

Play light and cheerful music in the background to keep the environment lively.

Red foods with health benefits

It's a good idea to eat a varied diet with foods from each food group so that you cover your vitamin and mineral needs. You'll be doing your health and tongue a favour by loading up on these healthy red foods.

By Ruba Eid

Beets

They are super low in calories, which makes them perfect for a weight loss meal plan. They also have fiber for healthy digestion and folate, which can help prevent certain types of birth defects. Serve roasted beets as a side dish or make borscht from them.

Red potatoes

They get a bad rap due to their carb content, but the red skinned variety has plenty of health benefits. They might contain carbs, but your body needs a certain amount of them for energy. Red potatoes taste great roasted, fried or added to stews and soups.

Cherries

Cherries have potassium for a healthy blood pressure and vitamin A for your immunity.

They are also loaded with antioxidants that fight free radical damage that can cause health problems from cancer to heart disease.

Watermelon

It's mostly water, which means you can eat it to help satisfy your daily liquid quota. It's also chock full of vitamin C, which you need to protect your immune system and fight off illnesses and diseases from the common cold to cancer.

Tomatoes

No matter how you eat them, tomatoes are great for getting enough vitamin C, and they are packed with lycopene, a nutrient that experts say can help prevent certain types of cancer.

Cape Town: The far reaches of Africa

It's the perfect time of year to set ourselves free and explore what nature has to offer. If you've been wondering what it feels like to experience a captivating adventure with the naturalistic African culture, Cape Town could be what you're looking for. South Africa is an excellent introduction to Africa; it is the continent's most developed country. From its wild beauty to its elegant beaches and unique natural wonders, Cape Town is known as the Mother City in South Africa. This charming city will promise you something new once you visit.

We all desire the soothing views nature provides for us. Looming above Cape Town, Table Mountain offers truly mind-blowing views where you can see the entire city peninsula, the Atlantic coast, False Bay, and the easterly valleys of Winelands. All this beauty can be viewed from the top of the mountain which provides you with an unforgettable experience. You can take cable cars to reach the top. Due to its magnificence, Table Mountain was named among the New7Wonders of Nature back in 2011 – making it a place definitely worth visiting.

KRUGER NATIONAL PARK

South Africa is home to the wildest animals on the planet, along with other beautiful animals which tourists would love to see. Spending some time with the animals at the Kruger National could be more fun than you expect. The park offers great wildlife viewing with all the major safari animals, elephants, white rhinos, buffalos and big cats.

BOULDERS BEACH

Cape Town is packed with the top world class beaches, whether you want a natural and wild beach, a quite romantic beach, a beach for surfing, or a beach with a lot of vibes, you will find what you need according to what suits your mood. Boulders Beach gives you a once in a lifetime experience as you swim with penguins, while other beaches around the coast provide you with breathtaking scenery.

PENGUINS AT BOULDERS BEACH

Although this paradise isn't exactly located in Cape Town, crossing the border to visit the Victoria Falls is a must before ending your adventure. It is one of the most enthralling sights in the world. You simply have to witness this mile-long curtain of falling water. Enjoy the spectacle at your own leisure. You can also go bungee jumping off the Victoria Falls Bridge if that excites you even more. Jet boating is also available in order to experience the Victoria Falls from below.

TECH NEWS

Samsung speaker

Samsung's new Bluetooth speaker is a little bigger and a lot heavier than other speakers. It has two stereo speakers, with a passive radiator in the back to amp up the bass. This speaker is the new technology by Samsung, the company that is following and keeping up on the latest tech.

Furthermore, it's not as heavy as we might imagine, but it's great to use when we're out or when not plugged to electricity. On the other hand, the more bass the music we're playing has, the more we will enjoy it. This is not to play the best sound of music ever, but the sound is good enough to enjoy jazzy or classical music, or even some of the latest hits. Easy to carry and to use, this one's a great idea for simple outings.

Easily track your workout

There have been many devices and gadgets that can be used in order to keep track of your gym workout and sport activities. Most of them do cover different types of activities, but one most important area has gone missing: free weights. Many people prefer lifting free weights, especially men who focus on free weight lifting for most of their training. Amiigo is a new gadget that can track over one hundred different activities and data such as exercise type, reps, sets, intensity, speed, duration, and many others. In addition to that, it keeps you updated about your heart rate, blood oxygen and skin temperature data, for even more data on how your workout affects your body. And when you're not working out, Amiigo keeps on working. Moreover, it can also be linked to your smart phone through an app, where you can manage your settings, choose your workout type, set reminders, and watch your history. Dumbbells and free weight? Amiigo is your best amigo for this.

Compact and practical

Do you want to capture exciting moments in your life but don't know how to film it? Or have you ever wondered which small camera to use? The new Cube Camera by Polaroid is the latest addition to the handy and compact camera varieties. Moreover, this small Cube Camera that measures 1.5 inches on each side, allows you to record 1080p wide angle videos, 6Mp photos for a running time of 90 continuous minutes. Everything will be saved on a microSD card to copy to your computer later. It is easy to use and made in a practical design with a magnet on its back side that can cling to metal surfaces. Because of its very small size and waterproof quality for 2 meters (you can save it in a waterproof cover for more depth), this camera is of great use and action.

Coffee brewing alarm

Most of us like to wake up with a coffee smell around, but how can that be done when you have to wake up first to prepare coffee? We've already spoken about alarm clocks linked with a machine that produces the sound and smell of a certain type of food, which for some can be the best way to wake up and energise. Barisieur is a new machine with two objectives: to wake you up and prepare your morning coffee. But not just in any way! The gadget has a built-in alarm clock that you can set up, linked to the coffee making settings. This alarm doesn't really ring like all typical alarms; instead it will produce the sound and smell of freshly made coffee, so that you can wake up, smell the refreshing coffee and grab your steaming cup of coffee. Furthermore, this is a great way to save time preparing your daily morning coffee and change the lazy way you wake up.

The best of men

Season 8 of Camp ka Champ, a singing talent competition for the labourers, is bigger and better than ever before.

In a city like Dubai, nobody goes unnoticed. Especially when it comes to the blue collared employees, there are continuous endeavours for their wellbeing. The month of Ramadan saw several charities for the laborers who work tirelessly throughout the year. But what about recreational activities? Camp ka Champ is the UAE's biggest singing competition for the labour community, and covers over 15 companies and 100 labour accommodations throughout the UAE. The auditions for the competition will run throughout August and September, and culminate in the crowning of a two-member team winner in mid October. The winners will receive prizes and the coveted trophy. Now, having entered its eighth year, the talent competition is bigger and better than ever before. Western Union Camp ka Champ – which means the champion of the camp – has several new features this year. The competition this year has an increased outreach, getting to 25% more residents in accommodation. In addition to this, the competition has an expanded participation, including participants from seven different nationalities. The competition will feature special talent segments for residents with skills in instrumental music, mimicry, dance and poetry. The competition is organised by Right Track Advertising with some high profile sponsors. Rupa Vinod, Managing Director of Right Track Advertising said, "Western Union Camp Ka Champ celebrates 8 glorious years of continuous empowerment & entertainment to the talented labor community in the UAE! Over the years this contest has brought out the latent singing skills of workers. Sometimes you just need the right opportunity, and Right Track Advertising is proud to have given this "right" opportunity to this community through its unique CSR initiative!" Over 3,000 contestants are expected to contest in the auditions between August and September 2014, and all labourers are free to participate. For the first time, by popular demand, an English song competition segment has also been included. "Apart from entertaining the residents, since they are actively involved, they can show case their talent; develop their personality etc. It gives them a great platform to express themselves. Through these activities they can connect to the world outside and get an opportunity to be recognized, appreciated and rewarded. These activities help them overcome the hardships they go through when they work outdoors under the severe weather conditions," says Rupa while talking to Read. Talking about the future, Rupa added to expect integration of the labourers into the mainstream activities with more active participation and engagement leading to happier labour community residents. Furthermore, residents can also go on to become professional musicians and entertainers and be able to get international attention and fame.

Football:

England's Wayne Rooney has been named the new Manchester United captain replacing Nemanja Vidic who left to Inter Milan. The 28-year-old led his team in their first game of the Premier League against Swansea. "It is a huge honour and a role I will perform with great pride," said Rooney. "I am very grateful to van Gaal for the faith he has shown in me."

Basketball:

Steve Ballmer has officially purchased the Los Angeles Clippers from the Sterling family after undergoing a long process. Ballmer is a billionaire businessman who paid $2 billion for the team, making it only slightly less than the biggest sale to involve an American sports team when baseball team Los Angeles Dodgers was sold for $2.1 billion.

Cricket:

Graeme Smith will now take part as the new tournament director for South African cricket's domestic Twenty20 competition. The 33-year-old retired from international cricket back in March and now seeks to recruit international players to the Ram Slam T20 Challenge which starts in November. "I am excited by this opportunity and looking forward to putting something back into the game." He said.

More to come

Gareth Bale sends a warning that there is much more to come from his partnership with Cristiano Ronaldo following Real Madrid's Super Cup 2-0 victory over Sevilla. The Wales international managed to assist the first goal as he crossed the ball to Ronaldo who pinched it into the net.

The Champions League winners have won one of the six cups they are intending to win this season. And Bale is now preparing well for his second season with Madrid as he is confident that his partnership with Ronaldo could get even better. "We enjoy playing with each other. We showed last season that we both created goals for each other and scored a lot of goals," Bale said. "This season we hope to improve, we can still improve together, and hopefully we can do better this season."

Indecisive championship

Former Champions Lewis Hamilton and Fernando Alonso have praised Australia's Daniel Ricciardo and expect him to remain one of their key rivals in the Formula 1 fields over the upcoming years. Ricciardo has given out a fantastic performance this season as he now sits in third place in the Driver's Championship behind Mercedes team-mates Lewis Hamilton and Nico Rosberg respectively.

The Australian managed to overtake Hamilton and Alonso in last month's Hungarian GP to win the race, the two men have given their respective nods of approval. Fernando Alonso was asked if he thought that Ricciardo had established himself and replied, "Yes, definitely. I think he's leading the champion team. He's doing a fantastic job this year."

Mclroy dominates world Golf

Rory Mclroy proves that he is the best player in the world following his dramatic PGA Championship win. The Northern Irishman began this journey after overcoming Phil Mickelson and Rickie Fowler to clinch his fourth Major of his career and second in a row, not to forget his success at the Open Championship last month.

Butch Harmon, who coaches Fowler and Mickelson said, "We saw the best player in the world show us again why he's the best player in the world, he went out and won this thing. Nobody handed it to him. He had to go and get it."

Mclroy is the first player to win back-to-back Majors after Pádraig Harrington in 2008 and the third youngest to win four Majors after Tiger Woods and Jack Nicklaus.

Farah eager for victory

Mo Farah looks forward to winning his next race at the 2014 Great North Run following his recovery. The 31-year-old has previously won 5,000m and 10,000m gold at the 2012 London Olympics and Moscow 2013. However Farah was forced to withdraw from the Commonwealth games in Glasgow due to an illness which came in his way. "I would like to come back and win this year," said Farah.

The race on the September 7 will also include Olympic marathon champion Stephen Kiprotich of Uganda. It is said that this year's race will feature the one millionth finisher of the Great North Run since the launch of the event back in 1981.

How to attract top job applicants

What your company needs to do to find the best applicants

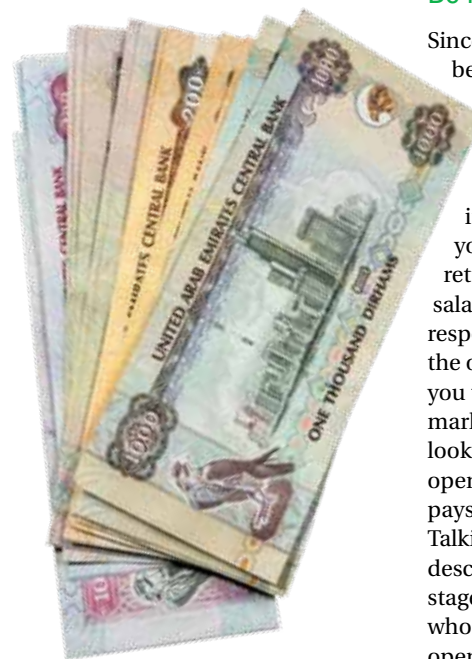

Have a clear job description

This open-ended question immediately puts the candidate in the corner because there is no one right answer to it. But there is an answer. This question is an invitation to open up and see where it goes without worrying about saying the right things. If the candidate plays along and shows his human side, it can reveal a lot about his character, creativity, and likability. Since personal characteristics are usually not part of the job description, the deciding factor may actually be “likability”. No one wants to work with an arrogant, negative person who won’t be able to get along with their colleagues. This question will help you discover the candidate’s willingness to be harmonious with others.

It’s true that a company is only as good as its people, so if you want to build and maintain a successful business, you need to attract and hire the best candidates. Many employers mistakenly believe that it is very easy to find great job candidates in today’s job market, but that’s not the case. Top candidates know their worth and they understand the value that they can bring to your company. That’s why they tend to be picky about what jobs they want to apply to, and the offers they accept. So if you truly care about attracting top talent, you need to put more thought into the way you attract and screen candidates. Akhtaboot is here with a number of tips to help you attract the best job applicants.

Be honest about the salary

Since you’re competing for the best candidates with other organisations, you need to offer a realistic salary. There’s no need to play games. You need to show that you’re investing in the candidate, if you want their investment in return. Many employers think that salary negotiation is the candidate’s responsibility when in fact; you are the one offering the job. It’s up to you to do the research and know the market value of the employee you are looking to hire. Shying away from openly discussing what the position pays will turn off good candidates. Talking about salary in the job description or at least in an early stage will attract strong candidates who will appreciate your company’s openness.

Develop a strong Employee Value Proposition (EVP)

Your Employee Value Proposition is what makes your company attractive to work with and how you are different than other organisations. It’s a combination of the benefits package, culture, opportunities for growth, and company values. Developing a solid EVP that incorporates what is important to the organisation with what is of value to its employees is the key to attracting the best people. Many world class companies are as famous for the way they treat their employees and the quality of their people as they are for their products and services. This is when an EVP works so well; people start queuing up to work for you!

Simplify your job application system

Online recruitment websites such as Akhtaboot.com have made things easier for employers. But many employers to this day still use daunting and time consuming application systems. You need to make it easier for your candidate to follow through. Make sure that your application system is easy to use, intuitive and capable of handling the applications.willingness to be harmonious with others.

Mediterranean Chicken

Here's our selection of some delectable recipes for the foodie. BON APPETIT!

Ingredients:

1 tablespoon olive or vegetable oil
2 teaspoons curry powder
1 jar (16 oz) chunky salsa
½ cup sliced green olives
¼ cup golden raisins
¼ cup honey
1 deli rotisserie chicken (2 to 2 1/2 lb), cut into 6 to 8 pieces, skin removed if desired

Procedure:

In 12-inch nonstick skillet, heat oil over medium heat. Stir in curry powder. Cook over medium heat for 1 minute, stirring constantly. Stir in remaining ingredients except chicken. Add chicken; turn to coat. Cover; cook over medium-high heat 5 to 6 minutes, turning chicken occasionally, until sauce is bubbly and chicken is thoroughly heated. Cooking the curry powder first gives an authentic taste, but if you're short on time, just skip that step.

Sweet Potato & Pecan Flapjacks

Ingredients:

1 1/4 cups all-purpose flour (about 5 1/2 ounces)
1/4 cup chopped pecans, toasted
3 tablespoons yellow cornmeal
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1 cup fat-free milk
1 cup mashed cooked sweet potato
3 tablespoons brown sugar
1 tablespoon canola oil
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
2 large egg yolks
2 large egg whites, lightly beaten
Cooking spray

Procedure:

Lightly spoon all-purpose flour into dry measuring cups; level with a knife. Combine flour and next 5 ingredients (through cinnamon) in a large bowl, stirring with a whisk. Combine milk, sweet potato, sugar, and oil, vanilla, and egg yolks, stirring until smooth; add to flour mixture, stirring just until combined. Beat egg whites with a mixer at high speed until soft peaks form; fold egg whites into batter. Let batter stand 10 minutes. Heat a nonstick griddle or nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. Coat griddle or pan with cooking spray. Spoon about 1/4 cup batter per pancake onto griddle or pan. Cook 2 minutes or until tops are covered with bubbles and edges look cooked. Carefully turn pancakes over, and cook 2 minutes or until bottoms are lightly browned.

What's in your stars?

The Read. astrologer tells you what you can expect over the next seven days.

ARIES

(MAR 21 - APR 20)

Arguments take up more of your time than you'd really like, but there's more to them than you may realise at first, so engage with your usual vigor and gusto. After they are settled, you should be able to fly through work or chores.

TAURUS

(APR 21 - MAY 21)

Slow down and make sure you're not jumping into any large projects without thinking them through. You should be able to read your friends and family quite easily. Though you know what's going on, avoid the temptation of saying 'I told you so' this weekend.

GEMINI

(MAY 22 - JUN 21)

You should be able to charm anyone from new clients to potential dates, even if they pretend to themselves that they can resist! Lay the groundwork for good times to come, but don't be too surprised if a bit of mental fatigue hits you, shake it off pretty quickly.

CANCER

(JUN 22 - JUL 23)

You need to examine the details of your life; even if you thought they were already under control. You've got the mental focus to really nail them. Your great emotional energy should help you pursue whatever interests or projects you have been putting off for a little too long.

LEO

(JUL 24 - AUG 23)

Talk with people, especially friends, about what you want to do next month or next year. You should be able to articulate your dreams in a new way, and thus bring them a little closer to reality. Your low-key energy is the answer to drama you are dealing with.

VIRGO

(AUG 24 - SEP 23)

You are feeling pretty skeptical of people's claims even if they don't like it. Use that logic you're so famous for to get at the root of the matter. It may be a good time for you and you are family to all get together and make plans or just enjoy each other's company.

LIBRA

(SEP 24 - OCT 23)

Your great mental energy helps you make plans and develop new ideas, and you also ought to impress someone with the quality of your thinking. Keep up the patter, and make sure others are involved! Now is also a good time to think about changing home arrangements.

SCORPIO

(OCT 24 - NOV 22)

Something small but important pops up and you might be the only person who recognises it for what it is. Don't waste any time explaining to others, just deal with it as quickly as you can and then move on. Let go of your worries as they should prove unfounded soon.

SAGITTARIUS

(NOV 23 - DEC 21)

You need to make a decision early this week, which shouldn't be too hard, but may have profound implications for your people. The outcome is entirely up to you, even if it feels as if you are constrained somehow. Try not to worry too much if you and a family member are at odds, it'll pass quickly.

CAPRICORN

(DEC 22 - JAN 20)

Things may seem a bit off-kilter this week, so at least have some fun during the wild ride! You've got more to do than time to do it, and might find yourself unable to focus on any one task for very long. Just try to do your best.

AQUARIUS

(JAN 21 - FEB 19)

The week starts with a bang, as your mental and romantic energies are in near-perfect sync; you may find yourself drifting into a new love connection. If that's what you're looking for, go for it of course! It's a good time to strike up new friendships, as well.

PISCES

(FEB 20 - MAR 20)

This week could make it hard to be sympathetic with those who have made their choices. But eventually you need to join one side or the other. Someone important loses their patience so you should do whatever it takes to get them off your back at that point.
